2nd Tucson Boy Scout to be honored for earning all 138 Merit Badges.

Only 405 Boy Scouts have earned all the merit badges in the history of scouting.

Tucson, Arizona- Troop 007 of the Catalina Council of the Boy Scouts of America will honor Sean Huelsman at their Spring Court of Honor on May 13th at 6:30 PM at Saint Thomas the Apostle Church.

Eagle Scout Sean Huelsman, who only needed 21 merit badges to earn Eagle, was first inspired by getting more than his brother, who had more than 80, from there he thought it would be cool to get them all.

According to Merit Badge Knot.com there have only been 405 scouts to earn all of the Huelsman said his favorite badge is aviation or truck transportation because they let him fly a plane and drive a semi-truck!

He said his least favorite was the shotgun merit badge. "it was cold and rainy when I did the merit badge. I was not a great shot at the beginning, only hitting one of fifty targets" Since then he has grown older and stronger. He is now competitive shooter and has won multiple State Championships in Trap and two in Skeet shooting.

Scouting has taken Sean all around the country. He has been to three High Adventure Bases, two National Jamboree's and a weeklong National Leadership Seminar. Sean will achieve Scouting's "Grand Slam" in May of 2019 when he visits the fourth and final High Adventure base in the Florida Keys

Eagle Scout Sean Huelsman of Troop 007 of the Catalina Council will be honored at their Spring Court of Honor for earning all 138 merit badges.
