Luke Teske of the Potawatomi Area Council in Wisconsin earned 124 merit badges as of 1994. There was enough time left after earning his Eagle for him to earn 15 palms. He wears five silver palms on his Eagle ribbon.

He has earned the Ad Altare Dei and Pope Pius XII religious awards. He was also presented with the Silver Good Citizens medal by the Sons of the American Revolution.

He also earned the Explorer GOLD award.

He has done a trek at Philmont in 1992. He attended the Jamboree in 1993. He went to Philmont to attend NJLIC in 1994. He was on NJLIC staff in 1995. After that he was invited to be a Ranger and has done that for the last three years including 1998.

He loves Scouting. He has learning problems in school but the Scout way of 'learning by doing' is just perfect for him. I don't know where he'd be without the Scouting program!

A proud father

PS Sorry I bugged up the first message. I learned computers as a goal for my 1994 Wood Badge Course. I enjoy it but I'm still learning.

Films About Organized Labor

Apr. 28, 2009 (Conglomerate Blog delivered by Newstex) As readers of The Glom know, my twin sons are trying to earn all 121 Scouting merit badges. This is a goal that was suggested to them by their first Boy Scout leader after he saw how diligent they were in fulfilling their assignments. Recently, we learned that earning all available merit badges is extremely unusual. Troy Pugh is attempting to collect information on every Scout who has ever accomplished this goal at Merit Badge Knot,...

Then, about a year ago, Hall realized he had 105 and was within striking distance of earning all 121 merit badges, a feat few have ever achieved.
