

Valedictorian Rachel DeVyldere leads S. Albany Class of '17

ALEX PAUL Albany Democrat-Herald Jun 9, 2017 0

Alex Paul, Democrat-Herald

Buy Now

2017 South Albany valedictorian Rachel DeVyldere, seated foreground. Salutatorians, seated, left to right: Alana Jimenez, Emma Clare and Bryce Burton. Students graduating with Highest Honors, behind left to right: Samantha Axall, Emma Bartley, Jennifer Hayden, Christopher James, Tahnisha Manibusan, Ryan Nofziger, Cade Perrizo, Abigail Slanga and Thomas Witney. Not pictured: Gabrielle Morgan.

f t e p b

COMMENCEMENT

What: South Albany High School commencement
When: 6:30 p.m., June 13
Where: Willamette Event Center, Linn County Fair & Expo Center
Baccalaureate: 6 p.m., June 11, SAHS theater

COMING SOON

See complete lists of mid-valley high school graduates in our Benton & Linn County Graduates 2017 guide, coming June 11.

With a grade point average of 4.29, Rachel DeVyldere of Tangent will be the valedictorian for the South Albany High School Class of 2017.

Rachel is the daughter of Tony and Leah DeVyldere of Tangent.

She participated in soccer, basketball, track and was the Lyle Bain Athlete of the Year.

Rachel plans to attend Oregon State University and major in biology and minor in Spanish.

Salutatorians will be Bryce Burton, Emma Clare and Alma Jimenez.

Bryce Burton has a 4.16 grade point average and is the son of Douglas and Kari Burton.

Related to this topic

He has been extremely active at school, in the community and at his church. He is an Eagle Scout and earned all 142 merit badges.

See how a car at IWant

Ad Council KEEP BE Give your go

Ad Council DON CRE

See how a car at IWant

Ad Council KEEP BE Give your go

More on this t

- 12 cities to receive J crime
- The Latest: 6 killed i
- Surge in Venezuela, accelerating
- Slumping oil prices i
- Amazon strikes agai house

This Week's Circ

