SCOUTS GET 'TASTE' OF CHEMISTRY MCCLUER N. OPENS DOOR FOR BADGES

Understanding how bread rises, identifying chlorine in water and neutralizing acid in acid rain are a few experiments that helped Boy Scouts learn more about chemistry. In a chemistry skills center at McCluer North High School, scouts not only earned a merit badge, they also had fun learning how chemistry applies to their everyday lives. In a four-hour lab session on Nov. 2, scouts as young as sixth grade conducted about a dozen experiments with household chemicals such as chlorine,...

BOY SCOUTS EARN RECORD 46 MERIT BADGES AT CAMP ROY C. MANCHESTER

Boy Scout Troop 250 of Lake Worth traveled to Western Kentucky this summer to visit the National Scouting Museum and camp at Camp Roy C. Manchester. The 17 Scouts earned a troop record of 46 merit badges at camp. At the museum, the troop learned about the history of Scouting from 1912 to the present. They viewed extensive displays of Scouting paraphernalia, as well as 54 Norman Rockwell paintings. The troop spent one week at Camp Manchester on the shores of Kentucky Lake, the second...

Jenks scout makes history earning 119 merit badges

JENKS - If the Boy Scouts made a merit badge for earning merit badges, James Derryberry would wear it. The 15-year-old Jenks Boy Scout recently became one of only 26 Eagle Scouts in history to earn all 119 merit badges. He's the only Boy Scout in Oklahoma history to do so. He's earned merit badges for rowing, cooking

When hunting died in the United States

I know the above headline probably won't make me many friends this week, but we as hunters are in denial. If we can't see the truth is such a shocking statement, denial is all that it can be. In America today, the latest figures reveal 80% of our citizens do not hunt. That means that we are down to one-fifth of the population to begin with and since voters decide all issues in our republic, our position is nothing short of precarious. Our only salvation comes from...

MIKE STEWART IS ONE COOL EAGLE SCOUT

Shame on me, but I'm jealous. I earned but one merit badge in my four years as a Boy Scout; Mike Stewart has the 21 badges that make him an Eagle Scout. Not only that, but Mike also is the third son in his family to reach Eagle rank. Let's put that in perspective. The numbers say less than 2 percent of Scouts make it to Eagle. Go figure three in one family and you are dealing in a fraction smaller than a flea's fanny. Mike is the 16-year-old son of...

21, 22 . . . 121 merit badges: Nottoway Scout goes beyond Eagle to earn all the badges

May 22 CREWE According to the Scout Oath, a Boy Scout always does his best, but Robb McDaniel, of Nottoway County, did even better than that. McDaniel earned the 21 merit badges required to become an Eagle Scout and then went a step further well, several steps and earned 100 more. To put it another way, he earned every merit badge offered by Boy Scouts of America, all 121 of them. It took him six years and a whole lot of cooperation from his parents, Scout leaders and members of the...

A FAMILY AFFAIR / YOUNGEST JOINS TWO BROTHERS IN EARNING EAGLE SCOUT HONOR

Only four percent of Boy Scouts earn the rank of Eagle Scout, Scouting's highest honor. In Dennis Township, the Zipparo family is part of that percentage - three times. When Steve Zipparo, 15, had his Eagle Court of Honor on June 5, he joined his brothers, Jeff, 20, and Andy, 18, who also are Eagle Scouts. All are members of Boy Scout Troop 56 of Dennisville. Having three Eagle Scouts in one family is very, very rare and the boys' father, Bill, says this may be...

for their first reunion in more than 60 years. A little older, a little grayer and a little wiser, they greeted their fellow Scouts with delighted grins. This was their chance to remember the good times - the camp-outs, the flag-raising ceremonies, the stew they cooked in tin cans. But it was also a time to reflect on the circumstances that brought them together. As Scouts, they did all the things that other Boy...
