It was attending the Eagle Scout ceremony of a family friend six that sparked an 11-year-old Micah Holston's interest in becoming a Boy Scout.

Now, six years later, Holston stands to be one of the most decorated Boy Scouts in the organization's 107-year history.

Holston, a member of Griffin's Troop 2, will have his Eagle Scout ceremony Sunday afternoon at First Baptist Church in Griffin.

Holston's list of awards and successes in Boy Scouts is impressive.

Out of 137 total merit badges available, Holston will have earned 138 badges (one of the badges was discontinued after it was earned) before he ages out of the scouting program when he is 21.
