Yakima People -- Huls Earns Every Merit Badge

Article from: Yakima Herald-Republic Article date: October 8, 2002 More results for: "jedadiah curry" merit badges | Copyright information

It takes 21 merit badges to become an Eagle - the highest rank a Boy Scout can achieve.

That wasn't good enough for Derek Huls, 17, Naches, a member of Troop 262 who decided when he was 12 to follow his dad's advice and set a goal.

He would get all the merit badges.

On Sept. 29, Troop 262, which is sponsored by the Naches Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, held a Court of Honor and Huls was awarded his Eagle.

He had earned 120 merit badges - all the merit badges Boy Scouting has to offer.

"I checked and I haven't heard of anyone who's even close to that (in our council)," said Holly Hall, Yakima, who tracks and verifies merit badge activities for the Grand Columbia Council, the ...
