

Collin Pike awarded Eagle Scout

Collin Pike of Troop 22 in Roanoke was awarded his Eagle Scout award at a ceremony held at Roanoke First United Methodist Church recently.

Collin has a total of 12 years of scouting, having also earned the distinction of the Arrow of Light and the God and Country award. The Eagle Scout Award is the highest honor that can be earned in scouting. Collin also has the distinction of being one of less than 50 scouts nationwide to ever earn all merit badges during his time in the Boy Scouts. That is a total of 130 merit badges during his time as a Boy Scout. He is also a Brotherhood member of the Achunanchi Chapter of the Coosa Lodge Order of the Arrow Scout Honor Society.

The award ceremony was performed jointly by the Revs. Steve Baccus and John Mann. Mann gave the induction and presentation to Collin Pike with his father Gary Pike and mother Anna Pike.

Special guests were his grandmother, Virginia Pike, and music director, Jesse Tiner. Collin is a third-generation Eagle Scout.

(From left) Collin's father, Gary Pike; Eagle Scout Collin Pike; Rev. John Mann; and Collin's mother, Anna Pike.