Peoria Eagles fly together - Seven boys who have been together all through Scouts make top rank together as well

PEORIA - Seven Peoria-area teenagers who have been in Boy Scouts together for years received their Eagle Scout Awards in a joint ceremony recently. The teens are all members of Boy Scout Troop 40, sponsored by St. Jude Catholic Church. "They've been together since they've been in Scouts. They've done it all together," said Assistant Scoutmaster Rich Bowes. So when it came time to receive their Eagle awards, the boys wanted...

Three Scouts earn Eagle rank

REDLANDS Boy Scout Troop 3 honored new Eagle Scouts at a formal Eagle Court of Honor Sept. 15 at the University of Redlands Orton Center. Matt Wright, James Barton and Michael Palmer each attained the rank of Eagle Scout after completing a large community service project earlier in the year, earning a significant number of merit badges, holding leadership positions within their troop and passing a final board of review. The rank of Eagle Scout is the highest earned rank in Boy Scouting and...

Trail work leads to Eagle Scout rank Canaan resident rebuilds Greenway trail

CANAAN — With 27 merit badges earned and 13 years of Scouting behind him, Derek Michael Van Deusen became an Eagle Scout on Sunday. Around 50 people attended the ceremony, including family members, fellow Scouts, friends, dignitaries and people from the community. The event took place at the Veterans of Foreign Wars on Route 7. John Lannen, who had been Derek's Scoutmaster for most of his life, directed the tradition-steeped ceremony. Fellow Scouts from the...

Scout earns 118 merit badges

For 18-year-old Elon D. Varble, scouting has been a way of life. He received his Eagle at the age of 12, and five years later, earned his sixth Silver Palm, which is the last Palm awarded by the Boy Scouts of America. Before the age of 16, Elon earned all 118 merit badges offered by the Scouts through his Troop 526, Harrisville LDS 6th Ward. With his father as his Scout leader when he was young, and his family centered around scouting activities, the third of 11 children, Elon shyly...

BOY SCOUTING REINFORCES POSITIVE VALUES IN YOUTH

Thanks for printing the recent column by Old North State Council President Craven Williams. I, too, was bothered by the editorial cartoon you published by Signe Wilkinson - portraying a Boy Scout wearing 'merit' badges that conveyed a disturbing message about today's youth. Scouting has made a huge difference in my life, and it is doing the same for thousands of others. The Old North State Council is currently helping to steer more than 18,000 area boys and...

The Girl Scouts of Chicago picked a real winner when they selected Debora de Hoyos, managing partner of Mayer Brown & Platt, to receive their 1992 Luminary Award, given annually to an individual who has excelled in his or her field. She was a scout herself and earned 18 merit badges. Her mother attended the award luncheon and brought her daughter's badge sash. De Hoyos has three daughters, ages 2, 4 and 7, who will be scouts. She is the first woman to be named a...
